

I understand that GreenDealz is a public engagement toolkit developed at University College Dublin & iCRAG Research Ireland Centre for Applied Geosciences as part of the VECTOR project. I understand that my participation is voluntary and anonymous and that I am free to opt-out at any point during participation.

I understand that as part of the toolkit I will take part in hands-on activities. I understand that my anonymous activity responses may be collected as part of research into public understanding of critical raw materials and green energy.

I understand that only _____ will have access to the anonymous data. I agree that results may be used to inform further research efforts, educational events and toolkits, scientific presentations and publications, and policy briefs.
